

Psalm 27 4-5, 7-8: One thing I ask

Why not watch this meditation on the whole of Psalm 27

The one thing David asks for in his song/prayer to God is that he wants to live in God's house – so, he wants to live with God for ever. Our wondering question this week is to wonder what God's house is like. What is it like to live with God all the time?

For a bit of fun, why not create a place where God and you could live together. You could draw it – what would it be like to live there? You could make it out of junk modelling or Lego or clay – how would you recognise it as God's house?

Or the psalm talks about God's tent. Why not take this chance to build a tent – maybe a den in the garden or a nearby woods, if you have one. Or under the table, with cloths hanging down over it, or a cushion fort. You could sit inside and talk to God about what it feels like to spend time together.

A prayer for when you wake up:
Jesus, one thing I ask today is that we spend it together.

Psalm 27 4-5, 7-8: One thing I ask

I ask only one thing from the LORD.

This is what I want most:

Let me live in the LORD's house all my life,
enjoying the LORD's beauty
and spending time in his palace.

<sup>5</sup> He will protect me when I am in danger.
He will hide me in his tent.
He will take me up to his place of safety.

<sup>7</sup> LORD, hear my voice.
Be kind and answer me.

<sup>8</sup> My heart told me to come to you, LORD, so I am coming to ask for your help. Copyright © 2006 by Bible League international
