This activity comes from a website called Flame Creative Kids and is a way of making a prayer journal.

Stick three envelopes in a row by opening them up and sticking the flap from the first onto the front of the next one. Just cut the flap off the last one. Think about what you might put on and in each pocket you've made. Maybe you could label them "God's world", "Other people" and "Myself". Or "Thanks", "Sorry", "Please".

I wonder what sort of things you could put in each pocket? Maybe maps, paper-chain people, photographs and drawings, stickers, decorated pieces of paper with names on.... All things to help you talk to God.

A prayer for your family:

God bless my family – even when we don't get on well together, I know that you love us all. Amen.
